

2. The auction will commence at noon on the above dates.
3. The sale will be subject to confirmation by the Deputy Commissioner.
4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents.
5. The successful bidder shall, at the close of the sale, deposit in cash or Government Promissory notes endorsed to the Deputy Commissioner a sum equal to one-tenth of the total rental including local cess at one anna in the rupee. Should he fail to do so, the exclusive privilege will at once be re-sold.
6. Re-sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will have no claim to any profit accruing at the re-sale. In the event of loss, the deficiency between the amount of his bid at the original sale and the amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale will be recovered from him as a revenue demand.
7. The successful bidder shall pay the rental and local cess thereon in full four equal monthly instalments in advance on the dates mentioned below. On failure to pay any of the khists on the due dates the lessee shall forfeit the amount already paid by him, also his claims to work out the contract during the unexpired portion of it, and any balance due will be recovered as a revenue demand:—

1st khist, 31st August 1905.

3rd khist, 31st October 1905.

2nd khist, 30th September 1905.

4th khist, 30th November 1905.

The deposit prescribed by para 5 will be retained by Government as a security for the due fulfilment of the contract.

8. The purchaser shall, within three days from the date on which confirmation of the sale is communicated to him, execute and sign an agreement on proper stamp paper, binding himself to observe the conditions published in para 9.

9. The successful bidder is required to conform to the following conditions:—

- (1) Not to cut plants under one year old.
- (2) The barked wood to be the property of the lessee.
- (3) To keep accounts showing the quantity of bark removed in accordance with the lease and to permit inspection of such accounts by the Amildar or by any officer deputed by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose.
- (4) To obtain passes for consignments of bark in such manner as may be laid down by the Deputy Commissioner.
- (5) To remove out of the limits of the taluks leased out to him, all bark cut, collected or stored, before the end of June 1906.
- (6) In the event of breach of any of the above conditions, the lease is liable to be cancelled and all the unexported bark to be confiscated.
- (7) Tangadi shrubs shall not be cut for the sake of leaves, manure or for firewood or any other purpose except the bark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Rules for the guidance of Sericultural Inspectors.

The following rules approved by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja are published for information and guidance of Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

1. The Sericultural Inspectors shall travel from village to village for at least 20 days in each month in the taluk or taluks assigned to them.
2. They will be placed immediately under the orders of the Assistant Commissioner in charge of the taluk or taluks, to whom they shall submit their diary at the end of each week. The Assistant Commissioner will draw and disburse the pay of the Inspectors.

3. Each Inspector shall keep a weekly diary in duplicate in the prescribed form, in which shall be entered the date and hour of arrival at a village, the date and hour of departure, the general instructions given to the raiyats assembled together with the names of the raiyats whose houses he visits in each village and the nature of advice or instructions given or work done in each house. All entries shall be briefly made in the diary and the entries for each village shall be attested by the patel or shanbhog of the village. One copy of the weekly diary shall be posted at the end of each week to the Assistant Commissioner under whom each Inspector works, the other being kept by the Inspector himself.

4. On leaving one village to go to another the Inspector shall post, on Mysore Government Service, a printed card to the Assistant Commissioner. The entries on the card will be the following:—

Date.....

Report of Sericultural Inspector.....

VillageHobli.....Taluk.....

Date and hour of arrival.....

Date and hour of departure.....

The Assistant Commissioner in charge of

.....Taluk

.....Town.

Sericultural Inspector

.....District.

5. The Inspector shall give at least three days, previous notice of his intended arrival to the patel or shanbhog of each village.

6. On arrival at a village, the Inspector shall, with the help of the patel or shanbhog, assemble all raiyats engaged in silk industry in a chavadi, school building or other suitable place and give them general instructions on improved methods of Sericulture, the nature and causes of the common diseases of silk-worms and the importance of light, ventilation and especially of disinfection. Notes of such general instruction shall be prepared by the Inspector beforehand. The Inspector shall invite and answer questions on any subject connected with the silk industry as far as he can.

7. The Inspector shall, in explaining the causes of common diseases, exhibit with the microscope the specific germs of the diseases if deceased moths or eggs are procurable on the spot, and explain the remedies or preventive measures.

8. The Inspector shall demonstrate the use of nets, sieves and the chopper to the assembled raiyats. These articles will be obtainable at Mr. Tata's Silk Farm, Bangalore, at specified rates.

9. The Inspector shall visit the houses of the silk-worm rearers, suggest improvements of ventilation, light and accommodation, and the proper ways of storing mulberry leaves and of disposing of the litter of the worms as manure.

10. The Inspector shall instruct the raiyats how to improve the mulberry cultivation by applying suitable manures.

11. He shall explain to the raiyats how each moth can be separated while it is laying eggs. He shall examine the moths and eggs if available under the microscope to test whether they are healthy and to suggest their destruction if they are unhealthy. To examine the moths and eggs at the right time, it may be necessary to pay more than one visit within a short time to the same village.

12. The Inspector shall help the raiyats in obtaining good seed cocoons from Mr. Tata's Experimental Silk Farm at a fair price should they desire to have them for rearing silk worms. He shall also help the raiyats to purchase from the stock at Mr. Tata's Farm, choppers, hones and nets.

13. The Inspector shall carry with him the following articles:—

1. A microscope in case.
2. Half a dozen microscope slides with covering glasses.
3. Half a dozen silk worm nets of different sizes.
4. A set of sieves of five different sizes.
5. A Japanese chopper.

T. ANANDA RAO, Revenue Comr.

BANGALORE DISTRICT.

Notification dated 9th June 1905.

1. It is hereby notified that in satisfaction of arrears of land revenue due by Sankarasastri, Mahadevasastri, &c., of Bangalore, revenue defaulters, the undermentioned immovable property will be sold by public auction at the village of Jodi Munnenahalli in the Taluk of Magadi in the Bangalore District on the 17th July 1905. The sale will commence at 11 A.M., and the property will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. The amount of revenue payable by the purchaser is Rs. 194-13-0, as shown in detail in the statement at foot.

3. Purchasers will be required to deposit twenty-five per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the date of the sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the property shall be re-sold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the property, tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, provided such tender be made before the property is knocked down.

6. The sale of the property will not become absolute until confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner or by some other officer duly authorized to confirm the same.

7. Purchaser having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Deputy Commissioner, be placed in immediate possession and the property will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale, signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner, will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description or in estimated extent.

8. Provided, parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Deputy Commissioner within thirty days from the day of sale and also to appeal to Government against his order within the time prescribed by law, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
